

Wabi-sabi is the idea that everything is beautiful, even things that are imperfect—things that might have been broken or made in an unusual way.

Kintsugi is an ancient art of repairing broken things with gold to show us the beautiful design that the crack made.

Color this broken bowl any way you choose to show its beauty.
Thank God for the beauty of life which includes even broken and imperfect things.

Find beauty within the imperfections of life.
Be reminded to offer grace for imperfections... for the beauty of the earth.
